

VIENNA CONFERENCE ON
THE HUMANITARIAN IMPACT
OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS
8-9 DEC. 2014

GLOBAL SECURITY
INSTITUTE

THE PERMANENT MISSION OF THE PHILIPPINES,
RELIGIONS FOR PEACE, THE GLOBAL SECURITY INSTITUTE, THE UNITED RELIGIONS INITIATIVE, AND THE WORLD EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE

invite you to a discussion on

“Nuclear Weapons and the Moral Compass”

Co-chaired by Ambassador Libran Cabactulan, Permanent Representative of the Philippines to the United Nations, and Jonathan Granoff, President of the Global Security Institute and Special Representative of the United Religions Initiative

Speakers include:

Hon. Ela Gandhi, Parliamentarian, Granddaughter of Mahatma Gandhi
Dr. Mustafa Ceric, Former Grand Mufti Bosnia and Leading Scholar of Islam
Tyler Wigg-Stevenson, World Evangelical Alliance
Dr. William Vendley, Secretary General, Religions for Peace International

December 8, 2014
Rittersaal
at the Hofburg Palace
Vienna, Austria
1:30- 2:30 pm

“Nuclear weapons are immoral; we must work together to eliminate them.”